

THE NATIONAL CHINESE SINGING CONTEST: MNMA WINS THE THIRD PRIZE

On 22th January, 2018, the 3rd Chinese singing competition for university and secondary school students in Tanzania was held in the auditorium of DODOMA Secondary School. Professor Wang Xiaohui --the director of Confucius Institute at DODOMA University; Dr. Rafiki -- the foreign director of Confucius Institute at DODOMA University; the directors of Confucius Classroom at Zanzibar and some chancellors of secondary school in Tanzania took part in this event.

Careen, a MNMA student standing first from left with Chinese teachers and other participants of CI-UDSM

The participants was divided into two groups: the university group and secondary group. 15 university students and 15 secondary school students who were selected from all over the Tanzania participated in this competition. Finally, the student of DODOMA University and the student of S.T Christina secondary school in Tanga won the first prize. Careen--the student of MNMA won the third prize in university group with the mark of 91.25.

The winner of third prize (Careen, a student from MNMA--third from right awarded a certificate)

This event received the attention and coverage from local media such as Daily News, Star TV and others. This competition promoted the spread of Chinese language in Tanzania and encouraged students to learn Chinese well.

Report by
Dr. P.D. Daninga
CI Coordinator at the MNMA