

MNMA WINS THE AMBASSADOR AWARD FROM THE EMBASSY OF CHINA

On 19th May, 2018, the Chinese embassy open day and ambassador award ceremony was held at the embassy of China. The award ceremony was hosted by Gao Wei, the Cultural Counselor of Chinese embassy in Tanzania. Yang Tong, the Political counselor of the Chinese Embassy in Tanzania, and Dr. Maria Semakafu, the Deputy Secretary-General of the Ministry of Education of Tanzania took part in the ceremony and made a speech. 30 students from different institutions under Confucius Institute at UDSM won the award, two of them are from Mwalimu Nyerere Memorial Academy (MNMA).

(Photo of guests and some winners)

LAZARO, DANIEL M (MNMA/BD.EHE/0124/16), the second year student of MNMA has learned Chinese for almost two years. He passed the HSK (Chinese proficiency test) level 3 with 262 marks (full mark:300 marks) and HSKK (HSK speaking test) basic level with 82 marks (full mark: 100 marks). He is the best one in HSKK basic level test among all students of CI-UDSM. He won the Chinese Learning Excellence Award from Chinese embassy.

(LAZARO, DANIEL M is getting the award from the guest of Honor)

HAMIS, RAMADHAN H (MNMA/BD.HRM/0335/16), the second year student of MNMA started learning Chinese on October last year. On March 2018, He did the HSK level 1 test and got full marks. In addition, he won the third prize of Chinese Bridge Competition (Chinese proficiency competition) on April 2018. He also won the Chinese Learning Excellence Award from Chinese embassy.

(HAMIS, RAMADHAN H and LAZARO, DANIEL M)

After the ceremony, LAZARO, DANIEL M was interviewed by TBC. He expressed his appreciation to Chinese embassy and shared some experience during learning Chinese. Now, he is applying for the CI scholarship. If he succeeds, he will go to China to learn Chinese for one academic year on September. Wish him good luck.

(TBC interview with Lazaro)

(Chinese teachers and two students of MNMA)